Organic Growers School Partners with AmeriCorps Project
Conserve to Increase Support for Home Gardening

Join us in welcoming
Gillian Scruggs to our staff!

Gillian's service work will focus on conservation education and volunteer recruitment for the Get Growing program and capacity building for the organization. Gillian will host educational events designed to educate, inspire, and support the average person to re-engage with growing and to repopulate their daily lives with home-grown food.

Ask Ruth Double Feature: How Do I Make Soil for My Raised Beds? AND Is There an Organic Miracle Grow?

Dear Ruth,
How do I make SOIL for my raised beds?

-Jo in Asheville

Dear Jo,

I don't have much first-hand experience with raised beds, because my gardens have always been planted directly in the ground. However, raised beds are the preferred growing method for multitudes of gardeners and I think they are a great way to garden. Because the bed is raised, you have much greater control over the soil tilth and you can enjoy light soil almost immediately. You have various options for making soil for your raised beds...

Dear Ruth,

Is there an Organic Miracle Grow?

Jack From Black Mountain

Hi Jack,

I can tell you what I use as "Organic Miracle Grow". I love the combination of hydrolyzed fish and seaweed (kelp). Neptune's Harvest produces this combination pre-mixed in pints, quarts, gallons, and larger...
