Full Schedule

Pierre Geaux, a well-known "agronoconomist." Pierre, with all the finesse of a French food snob, is a passionado for what the French call "Terroir" or local flavor. Pierre is on a mission to teach Americans something about cuisine, and he encourages us to eat something "interesting" by exploring the local flavors of small farms. Pierre will be addressing the dinner audience with profound, esoteric, arrogant, and amusing insights related to food, culture, delight, and the heart.

Tickets to the Dine with Pierre & OGS can be purchased on a sliding scale from $75 to $125 per diner. Please be generous as the funds serve to spread support and education for organic growing in our region.

To register for the dinner please go to <http://organicgrowersschool.org/annual-spring-conference/dine-with-pierre/> or call 828-278-9332.
